-A Brief History-

1653 – The “Shawshin Wilderness” was first settled in 1653 and its inhabitants recognized as the town of Billerica in 1655

1658- Samuel Whiting Jr. was called as the first minister. The first meeting house was built in 1659, but the church could not be formally organized and it's minister ordained until approval of the “Half Way Covenant” in 1663.

1797- A “new and more commodious meeting house” was found necessary. The fourth meeting house was built at that time, Dr. Henry Cummings was pastor.

1825- The American Unitarian Association was founded.

1828- The “First Church” existed alone in the Town of Billerica for 165 years.

1844- The Meeting House was renovated by adding the Greek portico and interior fittings, such as Ralph Waldo Emerson's pulpit, and the house was turned 90 degrees to face the east (This was done by jacking up the building, setting it gently on 2 large cannonballs, and carefully pivoting until it faced east).

1967- First Parish Church was destroyed by fire two days after Christmas. Emerson's pulpit and other First Parish treasures survived the blaze. Many Billerica and area residents and businesses contributed generously to the rebuilding of our church. On November 22, 1970, the fifth and present Meeting House was dedicated.

1990- A Mortgage Burning Ceremony was held to celebrate complete ownership of the fifth meeting house.

1997- A Tree Planting Dedication Ceremony was held to commemorate the 200th Anniversary of the erection of the fourth Meeting House on the current site of the church.

2007- First Parish is recognized as a Welcoming Congregation

2008- The Meeting House becomes accessible to all people with a new elevator. First Parish celebrates its 350th Anniversary in Billerica.
